NOTES:

Mississippi College calls for one World Literature and one of either English Literature or American Literature. Electives should be chosen with the assistance of a college advisor. Students should consult the Mississippi College Catalog and select courses required in their chosen major. All candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree and all English majors must take 12 hours of one foreign language unless they have the proficiency to begin their language study as the sophomore level. Developmental courses and courses from the career/technical areas will not transfer.

For additional information regarding any of the MC majors, contact the major department at Mississippi College. For enrollment information, contact the Office of Enrollment Services at 601/925-3800 or 1-800-738-1236.

Official Hinds CC Notice of Non-discrimination Statement:
